

Deputy Mayor's Report

November 2019

Liz and I attended the Civic Service of the Mayor and Mayoress of Launceston, Cllr Dave Gordon and Mrs Carole Gordon, on Sunday 3rd November. The weather was kind and the setting at St Thomas Church next to the river was lovely.

The Remembrance Service at the Town War Memorial on Sunday 10th November was quite emotional and thanks have to be extended to Annette Keen and Laura Kellaway for their hard work in helping make the service such a success. The Town Sergeant, Wally Scarah, had the timing down to perfection. Thanks also to the Royal British Legion and to everyone else who took part. They were all a credit to our town and those we were there to remember.

Liz and I then raced across to St Columb Major where we had the honour of laying a wreath on behalf of the Town Council and people of Looe. The service was held in St Columb Major Parish Church and afterwards at their War Memorial where The Mayor, Cllr Paul Wills gave the address.

I am not quite sure how this happened, but I found myself agreeing to be a penguin on Saturday 7th December for Santa's arrival. I think Annette Keen had something to do with it. Not quite sure how a penguin fits in with the arctic but I am not complaining as there will be a delightful companion penguin and two lovely reindeer to accompany me.
