

Planning Committee Update :

The planning committee is still receiving a steady amount of planning applications and of course the public interaction that goes with them .

As you know our next meeting is tomorrow Tuesday 10th January - This meeting features the controversial planning application for The Fieldhead Hotel, Portuan Road, W.Looe at the last count on Cornwall Council's planning portal this application had received some 57 public comments!

Planning enforcement is also on the rise with cases being reported to Cornwall Council.

Should any of you have any planning concerns or spot anything in the town then please let me know.

Cllr James Lundy - Planning Chair
