

Services and Asset Management Committee Report February 2023

There has only been one meeting since the last full council, the details of the decisions and proposals are contained in the minutes and as such I'm not going to repeat these in this report. However, of particular note is Trevor and his team have done an amazing job of working through the maintenance schedule as noted last time and have done this well under budget.

Martin Gregory 18/02/23