LOOE LIBRARY

ENGAGING WITH OUR COMMUNITY

We attended fetes at Polperro & Looe Schools, where many pupils and the Mayor of Looe, Cllr. Stephen Remington and Cllr. Jon Holmes, were keen to learn about the new Cornwall Reading Challenge.

Thank you to our helpful student from Looe Community Academy on Work Experience, for improving our Young Adult selection. We now have fresh appealing titles and eye catching signage on our dedicated spinner! We are looking forward to working closely with Looe Community Academy - and in September we will support the new school 'library wall' with an exciting range of stock for students to enjoy.

Lots more exciting FREE events lined up for the summer: Looe Library Festival Week 3rd-8th August, plus workshops with authors Tom Palmer, JT Scott and Christine McHaines, and the chance to have your creative masterpiece on display with our Draw & Explore Competition & Exhibition... So much to do in between building sandcastles! Catherine Supervisor, Looe Library & Community Hub
