LOOE LIBRARY

ENGAGING WITH THE COMMUNITY

We have lent over 200 books to Looe Community Academy and hope the students enjoy them (and visit the library to borrow more!).

We are delighted to share the good news that we are now open six days a week - including Wednesdays!

Monday 9:30 - 1pm
Tuesday 9:30 - 5pm
Wednesday 9:30 - 1pm
Thursday 9:30 - 5pm
Friday 9:30 - 1pm
Saturday 10am - 2pm

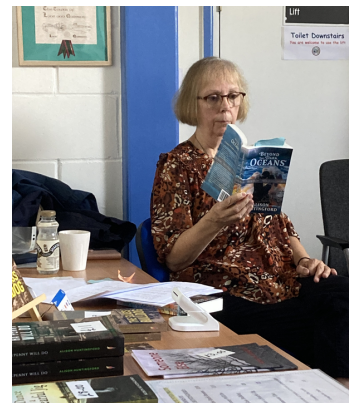

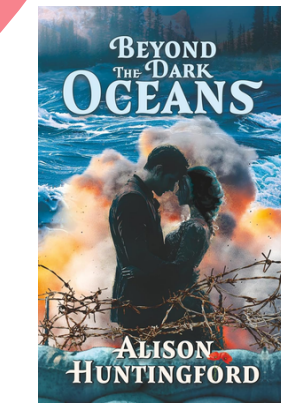

On Saturday 3rd October, we will host a French-themed Fun Palace, celebrating 50 Years of Twinning with Quiberon & Looe with free coffee and croissants. We hope to see you there (10am - 2pm)!

Supervisor, Looe Library & Community Hub

Vicki from Arts Well UK, led a Map Making Workshop where we are able to indulge in our favourite things about Cornwall!

Thank you to Author Alison Huntingford, for a fascinating insight into her family history and reading her latest book, 'Beyond the Dark Oceans'. We have hosted fifteen author events in celebration of the National Year of Reading, Our final event is on 5th November, with Author Mark Camp.
